How to Find a Full Text Article from a Citation

Follow this flow diagram to find the full text of an article from the citation information. If you have further questions, please view our online tutorial here, or visit us at the Research Help Desk.

Start here

Read Citation and Identify Journal Title

Go to the library website (library.northeastern.edu) and click on 'E-Journals A-Z'

Search for the Journal's title

Check Scholar OneSearch for the journal title.

Hint: Be sure to limit to 'Journals' under the material types filter on the left hand side of the page

Journal found! Click the Journal Title to see what years Northeastern has access to.

Use the citation information to see if we will have access to your article

Navigate to the correct year/volume, then issue of the journal

Click on the journal link with access to the correct year of your article

Scan the list of article titles for your article

Congrats! You've found the full text of your article!

Journal not found

Submit an InterLibrary Loan request for your article via ILLIAD

Journal still not found

Help! I don't know what that means

Watch this tutorial on submitting an ILLIAD request

Ask a Librarian via email, or stop by the Research Help Desk for additional help